Phnom Penh, November 14, 2007

Lok Chumteav

Chairwoman of Commission of the National Assembly in charge of Human Rights, Reception of Complaints, Investigation, and relationship with the National Assembly and the Senate

Subject: Request for examining the constitutionality of the essences of the letter N° 588 of the Council of Ministers and the Judgment of the Supreme Court

Ref: Your letter N° 347 NA.C1, dated November 2, 2007, submitted to the Constitutional Council forwarded by Samdech Akka Moha Ponhea Chakrei Heng Samrin, President of the National Assembly

Pursuant to the above-mentioned subject and reference, I would like to inform you that, in its plenary session on November 14, 2007, the Constitutional Council had decided as follows:

1. The request for examining the constitutionality of the essences of the letter N° 588 of the Council of Ministers and the Final Judgment of the Supreme Court was not within the competence of the Constitutional Council;
2. In accordance with Article 141 (New) of the Constitution, the petitioner had no qualification;
3. The Judicial power covers all litigations, including administrative litigation.
Please accept, Lok Chumteav Chairwoman, the assurances of my high consideration.

For the Constitutional Council
The President,

Signed and sealed: EK SAM OL
